Weddings at the Calf's Head

Whether it's a small family wedding or a large event our outstanding food and exceptional service coupled with the most stunning location nestled at the foot of Pendle with spectacular views and large gardens, the Calf's Head is the perfect location for your special day.

Located in the picturesque village of Worston, the Calf's Head is a lovely country inn, offering cosy bar areas and opulent dining rooms, complemented by 12 bedrooms.

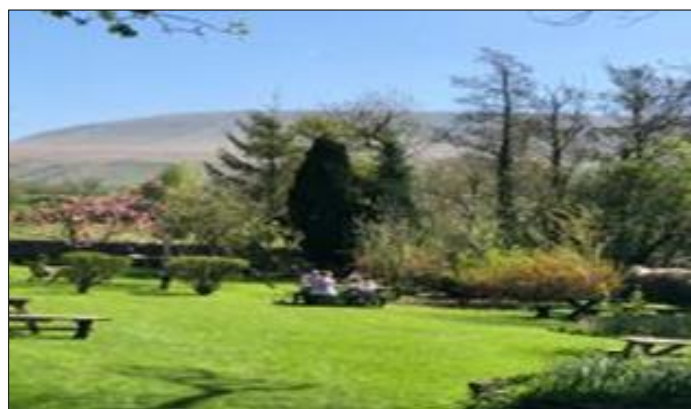

The recently refurbished Ribble room with its magnificent chandeliers, distinctive feature fireplace and modern day elegance is the perfect setting for a wedding breakfast and evening gathering. Our famous "glass house" with its picturesque views of the gardens, brook and panoramic views of Pendle Hill offers a fairy tale setting for a ceremony. If the weather permits wedding ceremonies can also be held outside in our stunning gardens.

The picture-perfect walled gardens, rippling brook, gazebo, bridge and the views of Pendle hill behind offer picturesque photo opportunities to capture wonderful memories.

Every wedding is unique so we have created this guide to enable you to build your very own wedding package which is perfect and unique to you.

We have lots of options for you to consider to make your own bespoke wedding. We believe in flexibility, so if there is something that you want that we haven't covered let us know and we will do our very best to see it happens or if you just want to pop in for an informal chat, we will be happy to see you.

Civil Ceremony or Church?

If you are going to have a civil ceremony, we have three areas licensed for civil ceremony, the 'Glass House', the Ribble room and the garden 'Gazebo'. The latter is restricted to summer months and weather permitting. These provide options for ceremony and reception to be sited to suit numbers and choice of aspect. It is not surprising that the backdrop of Pendle and the large gardens prove so popular for the special moment of the marriage vows. The charge for the facility is £250 on Saturdays and £200 on weekdays.

On arrival or post ceremony Guest drinks can be taken inside or weather permitting in the garden where the photographers have a field day with so many backdrops to choose from. The stream running through the grounds can add some romance to the occasion.

Having started to get into the celebration mood it is time to decide on the Wedding Breakfast menu. Below are the wedding breakfast menu options for you to have a look at. If there is something that you would like as an alternative then please enquire and we can price up alternatives for you.
